

First Presbyterian Church of Woodstock

A fellowship of people in all stages of life who gather together, praising and worshipping God with gratitude for our many blessings, accepting and caring for all God's children, and serving the community and the world with love and joy.

This Month From Pastor Eric

In the August newsletter, I wrote that I was sitting in our old house in Champaign as the movers emptied it out. Tonight, as I write this, I have just returned a U-Haul after spending the day moving the rest of our belongings from our temporary lodging at the Wormleys' house to our new house. In between those two moving days were other moving days, as movers unloaded our belongings into storage units in Woodstock, I made a day trip to Champaign in a U-Haul to get items left in our previous neighbors' garage, movers brought our belongings from storage to our new house, and we all made various trips back and forth from the Wormleys' house to our new house. We are thrilled to now have all of our family and all of our belongings in one place again. We're tired of all the moving and glad that's over!

It feels good to be in the house that we are making into our home. We are very happy to be in Woodstock and in ministry with you all at First Presbyterian Church, and ready to get these boxes unpacked and settle in!

The months of November and December are ones that often seem to fly by, as they are filled with many activities. Let's do our best to slow down and be fully present in the life of the Church and with each other. Soon enough it will be Christmas, but let's not start counting the days just yet. While my Facebook feed today (November 1st) has many mentions of Christmas, I'm first looking forward to celebrating All Saints' Day with you this Sunday (November 7th), pledge Sunday (November 14th), and Thanksgiving Sunday (November 21st), all before we get to the First Sunday of Advent (November 28th). Between those Sundays, I look forward to gathering with you for NOW Dinners, committee meetings, confirmation class, and however else we may meet. Speaking of meeting, grab a time to get together with me at <http://fpcwoodstock.org/meetwitheric>. I'd love to have some time to get to know you all better. Reach out to me by email: eric.corbin@fpcwoodstock.org or text/call: 815-575-9454.

In the meantime, think on these words from 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18: "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

Grace and peace,

Pastor Eric

A “Girls 4 Ghana” Update

Julie Farver recently received this lovely email from our partners in Ghana.

Dear friends and hoping to be long term partners, First Presbyterian Church in Woodstock,

Greeting from Ghana and all the beautiful girls you have helped.

G4G Ghana mission 2021 was successful and thank you for making it all possible. We could not have done it without your support. Both physical, monetary, and prayers. This year's trip was extremely difficult, but with God all things are possible.

Thank you for making this year's mission in Ghana possible.

My prayer is that First Presbyterian Church will continue to work with G4G together to do the little that we can do help these young beautiful girls have a better chance in life.

Please feel free to show these few pictures to your members. We have more but could not add all here, and do have consents from parents to share them with our supporters.

We hope to continue sewing at the church soon when feasible.

Thank you,

Dina Amoo

Local veterans and their families will benefit from our Giving Tree project this season. Tags with specific gift items will be placed on the small Christmas tree in the church entrance hall by Sunday, November 28th. The deadline for bringing these wrapped gifts is Sunday, December 19th. Be sure to sign the registration sheet (with tag numbers) when you take tags. Those not wishing to enter the church building, please contact Lynne Sobczak, 815-648-2321 or sobczak4u@yahoo.com for assistance.

Christmas Craft Fair

Our second annual holiday craft fair is coming this month. You will be able to purchase items before and after the NOW dinner on Wednesday, November 17th (5 p.m. to 7 p.m.) as well as before and after the worship service on Sunday, November 21st (9 a.m. to 11 a.m.). Be ready to buy some wonderful hand-made gifts for the holidays. Cash and checks will be accepted. All profits will benefit the youth programs of our congregation.

We could still use more donated craft items. For extra ideas about craft items to consider making, see Lynne Sobczak. Craft items should be placed on the tables in the hallway across from the custodial room by Sunday, Nov. 14th. If you need assistance getting your items there by then, contact Lynne Sobczak, 815-648-2321 or sobczak4u@yahoo.com for help.

Christmas Joy Offering

The Christmas Joy Offering reflects that God is with us, through the generous gifts that support church leaders among us, retired, present and future, who have pointed us to God. Even as we support our current and former church leaders through the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions, God is calling new leaders for our Church and world, through the ministry of Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color — offering students the means for a brighter future and enhanced opportunities to use their talents and skills to serve God, the Church and the world for years to come.

November Update from the Deacons

We are getting closer to producing an updated church directory! It has been fine-tuned with the help of Pastor Eric and Dave Davis. Copies will be made soon and distributed. Barb Parrish, Mary Hill and John Rigby will be helping with the binding.

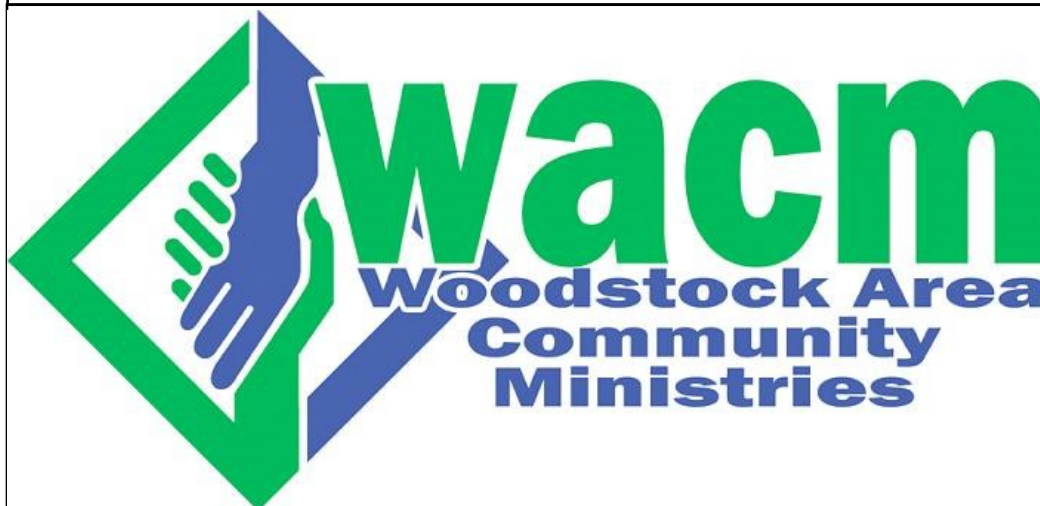

Again, this year, Deacons will deliver Advent Bags to flock members that are unable to pick them up at the church.

Please contact your Deacon as they want to help their flocks with any issues, news to share or needs. We are there for you!

Thank you.

Nominating Committee: Help Wanted!

Deacons are looking for a few good men (three!) to join the Board for a three year term of service as a FPC Deacon. Deacons serve the congregation to care for and connect our members to each other. Common duties include keeping in touch with an assigned group of members as a main point of contact for them, helping with funerals and other celebrations of life as may be called upon, organizing some congregation-wide events in collaboration with other Boards and committees, and in general, being the hands and feet of Jesus to our congregation and their families. The possibilities are endless and unlimited and new ideas about how to increase the vitality of our church are welcome!

We are not being sexist – we really do try to keep Session and Deacons balance as close to 50/50 M/F as possible and it just so happens that we currently need more men to step up to serve in this capacity! If you can volunteer to serve as a Deacon, please contact a member of the Nominating Committee as soon as possible as we would like to present a slate of officers to the congregation for election in November.

Nominating committee members include Sue Krause, Dave Davis, Jim Wormley. Pam Moorhouse and Alan Dunker. THANK YOU!!!!

The Rhythm of Giving

For Christians, the primary rhythm of keeping time is that of the week. Sunday – the Lord's Day – is the day of new creation on which Christians gather to hear the good news of the gospel and to celebrate the sacraments.

Another rhythm for Christians is daily prayer.

Still another rhythm for us is giving of our time, talents, and treasures – our offerings. The generosity team has mailed you a letter about pledging. Please keep the beat by prayerfully determining your pledge for 2022 and bringing it for dedication at Sunday worship November 14.

P.S. Pledges also can be made at fpcwoodstock.org or by mail.

News from the Worship Arts Committee

Welcome to our new Accompanist – Roger Dickman

We are excited to introduce our new Accompanist. Roger Dickman lives in the Barrington area. He has over 20 years' experience in both educational and religious music settings including weddings, funerals, and musicals covering a wide range of styles and genres. Roger has most recently been performing at other churches in the Chicago suburbs. He has a BS Degree in Music from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI.

Ministry Support and Christy Johanson were really impressed with Dickman's skills when viewing his YouTube videos and during the interview process. We look forward to having Roger as our permanent Accompanist and are confident you will enjoy having him join our Worship Team.

On another note, many thanks to Danik Kooistra as he ably filled in as the Interim Accompanist these past few weeks. His piano music was impressive and enjoyed by all.

Chris Nejd, Worship Committee
